

Compliance snapshot 2024

The Fair Work Commission (the Commission) helps registered organisations comply with the requirements of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 (the RO Act). We monitor their performance to inform our priorities, services and other activities.

Below is a snapshot of compliance in the 2023–24 financial year. Registered organisations can use this data to understand their achievements and priorities and discover how they compare with other organisations during the 12-month period.

There are currently 92
registered organisations.

51 are employer organisations.
40 are employee organisations.
One is an enterprise association.

There are currently 268
reporting units.

There are 375 entities, which includes branches, divisions and national offices.

(Data in this section as at 30 September 2024).

2,077,942
members represented
(as at 31 December 2023).

2,854
documents were lodged with the Commission.

Average timeframe to approve entry permits: 17 days

$1.6b in annual revenue reported.

Registered organisations
control approximately $3.8b in assets.

100%
of annual returns were lodged with the Commission on time.

2,255

courtesy letters
and alerts were sent to registered organisations.

152
elections
arranged.

21 days

On average, this is how long we took to issue an election decision.

84%
elections arranged within 4 weeks of lodgment.

98%
elections arranged within
8 weeks of lodgment.

75%

of financial reports were assessed as compliant for financial years ending in 2023.

99.7%

of Officer and Related Party (ORP) disclosure statements lodged on time.

25

education activities provided, including hosting two in-person events.

78

total number of attendees recorded for our two in-person Registered Organisations Education and Support Program events.

32

registered organisations represented in the in-person events.

7 Governance to You packages delivered.

16 approved financial governance training packages.

33 potential whistleblower disclosures were received.

148 requests for advice and assistance.

1,222

times episodes of our podcast RO pod: Talking about Governance of Registered Organisations were downloaded.

(30 September 2023 to 30 September 2024).

Most popular episode

Episode 51 – New Enforcement Tools

Connect with us to stay ahead of compliance:

Request a Governance to You visit

Subscribe to emails

LinkedIn

