The Fair Work Commission is taking steps to minimise the risk of exposure or spread of COVID-19. These steps are directed at ensuring the health and wellbeing of Members, staff, and parties, and minimising risk so that we can continue to deliver services to the community.

One of those steps is to eliminate so far as is possible any unnecessary attendance at the Commission. Where a hearing or conference is necessary, these will be conducted by telephone. Some proceedings could be conducted via video conferencing, however, they are reliant on access to network resources.

Consistent with this approach, this matter has been relisted to being conducted by telephone. This is reflected in this revised notice of listing.

If you have any queries about the re-listing please contact chambers on the details below.
